Looking for an Angel in Canandaigua

September 2010 – Canandaigua, NY, - Do you know a young lady in Canandaigua that possesses angelic qualities? The Canandaigua Christkindl Market at the Granger Homestead returns for its 4th year on November 12, 13 and 14, and the event committee is in search of an angel to preside over the festivities.

The Christkindl Angel is a tradition of this type of European inspired Christmas market. As tradition goes, a local young lady is selected and crowned before the market opens. It is an honor for her to be chosen to greet guests and reign throughout the event.

The Canandaigua Christkindl Angel contest winner will be crowned at the Canandaigua Christkindl Market Dinner and Dance held on November 6 from 6-10 pm. She will open the market on November 12 and participate in activities throughout the event, as well as other promotional activities during 2010-2011, such as the Memorial Day and Fourth of July parades.

Qualifications for the angel selection are a young lady, at least 13 years old, who is a resident of the city or town of Canandaigua and has parental/guardian consent to participate. The candidates should have knowledge of the Granger Homestead and Christkindl Market, and demonstrate a sincere desire to promote the Granger Homestead and Christkindl Market. The candidates must be available to attend the Christkindl Market Dinner and Dance on November 6 for the crowning and the market events on November 12, 13 and 14, 2010.

The Christkindl Angel will be selected based on her application, speaking ability, poise, personality, and knowledge of Granger Homestead and Christkindl Market. Selected candidates will be interviewed by the Christkindl Market Executive Committee.
